A REAL-WORLD EXAMPLE

SocialChorus Helps a Multinational HR Team Gain 110% Improvement in Open Enrollment Participation

A multinational company with 52,000 employees was planning for open enrollment. Because of the size of their organization and the number of deskless workers, the task of communicating open enrollment was incredibly time-consuming and difficult.

They used every means possible to reach employees—email, intranet, flyers in break rooms, and more. However, the HR and communications teams had no way to monitor whether employees actually received the information. As a result, many workers missed the open enrollment deadlines and the opportunity to make benefits changes.

Determined not to repeat that outcome, the company used SocialChorus the following year to publish and distribute open enrollment information. They were able to target employees with benefits information tailored to their needs, including automated reminders.

The company saw a 110% gain in open enrollment activity from the previous year, and the SocialChorus platform saved the HR team countless hours.
